LEARN MORE & REGISTER: https://northwestsbdc.org/leading-edge-2024/

The 8-week LEADING EDGE Strategic Planning Series begins April 4th and includes:

10 on-demand learning modules
8 live weekly forums hosted by expert SBDC consultants
Unlimited one-on-one, confidential consulting
4-month subscription to LivePlan ($160 value)

Participants will incorporate expert instruction, consulting, and cohort feedback with the intuitive functionality of LivePlan to develop a business plan they can confidently present to a lender or investor and use to guide their business.

From April 4 to May 23, rural business owners and aspiring entrepreneurs will assess the viability of their startup ideas or growth strategies. They'll refine their business models and finish with a strategic business plan to secure financing and guide their business ventures.

Registration is $275, and scholarships are available; contact Danise Cardona at danise@northwestsbdc.org.
